

NAHSE SOCAL INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Institutional members are hospitals, medical centers, neighborhood health centers, group practices, health insurance companies, managed care entities, and all other organizations interested in supporting the programs, aims, and goals of NAHSE and are eager to contribute to its cause, either in the form of financial support or other in-kind aid.

Institutional members are members of NAHSE SoCal and may indicate individuals from their institution who will receive benefits as part of their institutional membership or contribute to the membership of local SoCal university students.

Institutional Dues = $1,500/year.

For more information on becoming an institutional member, please contact Shannon McClenton, Chapter President at nahsesocal@gmail.com
